A SUDDEN TWINGE

Of pain is generally the first warning of an attack of rheumatism. It feels as if the disease were in the bones or muscles, but the real cause of rheumatism is found in impure blood. In order to cure rheumatism the blood must be cleansed of the poisonous impurities which are the cause of the disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been very successful in the cure of rheumatism, because it entirely cleanses the blood from the poisonous uric acid which is the cause of the disease.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me of rheumatism after I had tried a dozen remedies without relief and also gone West in search of health," writes Harry Kitter, of No. 1645 6th Street, Denver, Colo. "Only those who have suffered from this dread malady know the pain and misery I endured for over five years. Whenever the weather was damp or cold my troubles were increased and my joints would be so stiff and sore that I was hardly able to move about, and often unable to dress myself. I used a number of highly recommended medicines, but they had no effect whatever on me, and I came to Colorado hoping to regain my health, but failed to obtain the relief I had hoped for. A gentleman in the house where I lived advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and in four months and a half after I began using it I was a well man, and have had no touch of it for the past seven months."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets These tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor. Put up in vials; always fresh and reliable.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere,—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Horrors of War.

A dispatch from the headquarters of General Rennenkampff, near Oubenepusa, dated Saturday, paints the following terrible picture of the horrors of war: "The road northward is crowded so far as the eye can reach by a continuous file of two-wheeled Chinese carts full of Russian wounded, the best testimony of the valor with which the army of the East, fighting continuously for a fortnight, has defended every inch of ground over which it has been compelled by superior numbers to retire. Each cart bears from three to five wounded men whose exhaustion is almost too utter for them to feel pain. Scarcely a groan or cry is heard—not even the moans of the dying—only the dismal creak of the rude wheels and the thud of the ponies' hoofs are audible. Most of the wounded have their heads covered with Chinese blankets or dirty coats stiff with coagulated blood hiding wan and dirty faces distorted with pain, sunken eyes and expanded nostrils. Here and there is seen a cart with two wounded men between whom is a corpse, which with every jolt pounds against the helpless living comrades of the man on whose face death had sealed the distortion of unbearable agony. The valley in front of the Russian position has become a valley of death. Corpses strew the debatable ground, from which neither side can remove its dead. Again and again the Japanese charged down the slope and up the hill. Again and again the Russians counter-attacked, trying to gain possession of the hill with the tower. No quarter was asked for or given by either side. The enmity ceased only in death—the wounded with breasts torn open by shrapnel or bayonet essaying another shot with their last breath. Here sits a Japanese upon a stone, a moment's pause for rest having stretched him into eternity. There lie two foes with bayonets sheathed in each other's breasts. Everywhere corpses—corpses—corpses."

Mrs. Chadwick Faints at Trial.

A complete nervous collapse by Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick brought the first day of her trial to an abrupt close in Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday. E. H. Halter, of Oberlin, the second witness called by the State, was on the stand, and had answered but two questions, when Mrs. Chadwick, who was very pale, whispered to her attorneys that she would be compelled to leave the room. She passed out quickly, and upon reaching the anteroom sank into a chair in a faint. Two trained nurses who were in the courtroom were hastily summoned, and in a few moments Mrs. Chadwick was revived. She was in no condition to return to the courtroom, however, and Judge Taylor adjourned the trial until this morning. It was an exciting day for Mrs. Chadwick and she took the keenest interest in all the proceedings. Seated close beside her attorneys, she scanned the face of every juror summoned, and frequently expressed her opinion of them to her lawyers. In the afternoon, when District Attorney Sullivan outlined the case he expects to prove against her, Mrs. Chadwick's eyes did not leave his face for a second. She rested her chin in her hand, in the palm of which she held a lace handkerchief, and drank in every word uttered by Mr. Sullivan with the greatest anxiety. When he ceased speaking and her counsel, J. P. Dawley, rose to state her side of the case, her face brightened and she followed him as eagerly as she had listened to Mr. Sullivan and, apparently, with far more pleasure.

A Proud Distinction.

At the reception which followed a convention of Sons and Daughters of the Revolution one handsome young woman was especially observed. She was not only beautiful, but bore herself with great dignity. Surely she must come of unusually distinguished lineage, reflected the young man from the West. Having obtained an introduction to her he could not resist the temptation to ask some questions.

"Your revolutionary family record," he said, tentatively, "is a remarkable one, I suppose?" "Yes it is," she replied promptly. "My great-great great-grandfather, a Massachusetts farmer, sent his six sons to Bunker Hill, all private soldiers." While the young man was looking at her somewhat surprised she glanced cautiously around as if fearful of being overheard. "It is not generally known," she said, "that there is a stain upon our record. One of the six became a corporal. Still, the disgrace of it is lost in the record of the other five, who remained privates even until the surrendered at Yorktown. I confess that once I didn't appreciate this thing at its true value. But attendance at many gatherings of the Sons and Daughters and hearing the speeches and listening to the records and other statements has convinced me that beyond doubt those five ancestors of ours were the only privates in the revolutionary armies."—[The Youths' Companion.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat or chest irritation, better act promply like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine on earth. At E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store, 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAR. 7, 1905.

FORMER SENATOR QUARLES, of Wisconsin, was nominated by the President yesterday, as stated in the Gazette of that day, to be a United States judge in the eastern district of Wisconsin, and was at once confirmed by the Senate. Politicians characterize the action as a move by both the President and the Senate against Senator La Follette, who is to succeed Quarles in the Senate. The appointment was engineered by Senator Spooner, whose antagonism to La Follotte is bitter. Quarles was a candidate for re-election to the Senate, and was supported by the anti-La Follette republicans in the Wisconsin legislature. Comment in Washington credits Mr. Roosevelt with a desire to keep La Follette in the background, lest he become a presidential possibility four years hence. It is generally believed that La Follette will prove himself one of the strong men of the Senate and will join promptly in the movement for federal control of corporations.

REGULATION of football is the object of a bill passed by the South Dakota House last week. The bill disqualifies any player who injures another, and makes it a misdemeanor for a player to enter another game for a period of ten days from the date of his disqualification. It also makes it a misdemeanor for a captain to allow a disqualified player to enter a game, and prohibits the entrance into State institutions of football players who take only part of the course of study. The bill does not go far enough. It should make the player who injures another liable to a fine and imprisonment, just as in other assault cases.

THE INAUGURATION of 1905 is over, and most of the thousands who were attracted to Washington during the past few days are either home or on their way thither. There seems to be a growing conviction upon the part of many that some features in connection with the induction of a President into office could be omitted—especially a large slice of the military display, now that all soldier companies are attired in regulation blue and "look alike." There should be more scenes suggestive of serenity and less of those which have long since become insipid to most people.

CONSIDERABLE astonishment has been caused among Washington residents by statistics recently compiled showing that, with the exception of Denver, Col., and Los Angeles, Cal., both of which are health resorts, the national capital has the greatest percentage of deaths from consumption of any city in the United States. The Associated Charities has appointed a special committee to investigate the subject and raise money to protect the city from the spread of the dread disease.

DURING THE past few days thousands have fallen in the clash of war now in progress in the East. The Japanese, undaunted by the terrible losses they are suffering, are pressing on, while the Russians, equally as valiant, are contesting every foot of ground. Mukden and Fushun, however, appear to be doomed, and even now may be in the hands of the Japanese. The latter seem to be about to emerge victorious, although they are paying dearly for victory.

THE DEATH OF former Senator John H. Reagan yesterday at Palestine, Tex., removes a picturesque and active figure in Southern politics. Mr. Reagan had been in public life for sixty-five years, and had held one public office or another during practically all that time. He was a sturdy, vigorous and intelligent representative of his class and of his people, and Texas loses in him a leader who has done distinguished service to that State.

THE New York State Superintendent of Banks reports that the trust companies of the State have made enormous gains in the last year, and that their resources, amounting to $324,280,487, place them ahead of the savings banks for the first time, notwithstanding that the latter have themselves made great progress.

A NEGRO suffering from smallpox walked about the streets of Washington while the inaugural parade was in progress. Strange the Washington papers did not say the man came from Alexandria.

Washington, D. C., March 7.

The Senate believes it has four years of fighting before it. All the Senators seem to be convinced that President Roosevelt means to keep them under pressure from start to finish of his administration in an attempt to secure legislation which he thinks ought to be enacted. They feel it will be the most strenuous four years since the civil war period. A few of the republican Senators and most of the democrats are not disturbed at the prospect. Along certain lines they are willing to give the President what he wants or something approaching that. Most of the republicans, however, are of another way of thinking. They regard the President's programme, so far as it has been developed, as mischievous, if not dangerous, and revolutionary. They are inclined to stigmatize it as democratic and of the Bryan type of democracy, if not downright populistic. All these republicans are apparently resolved to go very slow in giving the President legislation, and some of them will undoubtedly fight his programme almost from the start.

President Roosevelt's office was again besieged by a crush of sight-seers this morning. Senators and members of Congress by the dozen brought up their visiting friends in groups to see the President. Between handshakes it is said by some that the President made considerable progress with several Senators toward the goal he is striving for—the ratification of the Santo Dominican treaty. Some of those with whom he talked said they believed that the treaty would be O. K'd within a few days "unless Mr. Morgan interferes," but others say the treaty in its present shape will not be ratified.

Notwithstanding the number of strangers still in the city, comparatively few of them were at the Capitol today. The House side being closed the visitors occupied seats in the Senate gallery, but after a ten minutes session that body went into executive session, and the galleries being cleared the strangers occupied their time by walking about the building.

President Roosevelt has caused to be postponed the reunion of the Rough Riders at San Antonio, Tex., from March 31 to April 7. He will accordingly not leave Washington for this function until April 4.

The President today sent to the Senate the following nominations: Chas. H. Treet, of New York, to be treasurer of the United States, succeeding Ellis H. Roberts; Charles W. Anderson, (colored) of New York, to be internal revenue collector at New York, succeeding Mr. Treet; Representative Alston G. Dayton to be federal judge for the northern district of West Virginia, succeeding Judge John J. Jackson; to be secretary of embassy, John Ridgely Carter, of Maryland, at London, England; to be second secretary of embassy, Craig W. Wadsworth, of New York, at London, England; to be third secretaries, Louis Einstein, of New York, at London, England; William Blumenthal, of New York, at Paris, France; to be secretary of legation and consul general; Thomas E. Moore, of the District of Columbia, Roumania and Servia.

Upon assuming the duties of Postmaster General Mr. Cortelyou announced that he would retire from the chairmanship of the republican national committee. At the expiration of a few days, required to dispose of certain necessary details relating to the committee's participation in the inaugural ceremonies, the appointment of a vice-chairman, already selected by Chairman Cortelyou and the authority conferred upon him, will be announced and the vice-chairman will become acting chairman of the committee. It is understood that the acting chairman will be Harry New, of Indianapolis. The other members of the Cabinet were sworn in during the day at their offices in the departments.

President Roosevelt has decided to appoint as consul to Aix la-Chapelle, Germany, J. Martin Miller, the well known Washington correspondent. Mr. Miller for two years past has represented in this city the Newark Evening News and a number of other papers. Besides his reputation as a newspaper man he has acquired no little note as an author. Among his books are "China, Ancient and Modern," "Life of Pope Leo XIII" and a life of President Roosevelt which was largely circulated during the recent campaign. He has been an extensive traveller, was a war correspondent in China and the Philippines and has interviewed a large number of the great men of the world.

The Senate committee on foreign relations this afternoon spent considerable time discussing the Santo Domingo treaty. A number of amendments were decided upon and there is a prospect that the convention will be submitted to the Senate for ratification tomorrow. It will have to run the gantlet of a long debate, but friends of the administration who have made a preliminary poll, say that the necessary two thirds vore for the ratification will be forthcoming.

Lieut. Gen. A. R. Chaffee, chief of staff, this morning placed before the Secretary of War the resignation of Captain George W. Kirkman, 25th Infantry, about to be tried at Fort Niobrara, Neb. The charges prepared by the War Department against Captain Kirkman allege among other things, that he visited a New York hotel in the company of Mrs. Chandler, wife of Lieutenant Chandler, of the army, who recently shot herself in Omaha, and registered as Mr. and Mrs. Chandler. It is thought by the officials of the War Department that the resignation of Captain Kirkman will be accepted. The charges preferred against him are too serious a nature. Besides his alleged alienation of the affections of Mrs. Chandler from her husband, which is said to have led to her suicide a few days ago, Captain Kirkman is charged with absence without leave, drunkenness and other even more serious matters. Kirkman was dismissed from the army in 1899, for alleged serious misdemeanors, but was later reinstated by joint resolution of Congress. Lieutenant Chandler is one of the principal witnesses against Captain Kirkman.

Mrs. Henry Siegel, of New York, has bought from the receivers, The Washington Mirror. The price paid was $1,850.

Seth Bullock and his cow-punchers will give a wild west exhibition at the base ball park this afternoon. After the exhibition the ponies that the cow boys brought with them will be sold to the highest bidders, and within the next few days a number of exciting incidents may be expected in the fashionable districts of the city when the purchasers of the untamed steeds "try them out." A gentle fall of rain dampened the inaugural flags and bunting which were still hanging about the streets this morning, but no one cared, for they had served their purpose. Gangs of workmen and great processions of teams are busily engaged in removing the stands along the line of march taken by the parade and the outgoing railroad trains are crowded with home-going visitors. The committee chairmen of the inaugural management are formulating their reports. Treasurer Milton E. Ailes believes that he will have a balance of $10,000 or $15,000 to turn over to Gen. Wilson, the chairman. It has not yet been decided what to do with the surplus.

Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, went to New York this afternoon for the purpose of looking into the strike situation on the Interborough lines. He will return Friday.

The Navy Department today received word of the death at Lausanne, Switzerland, of Rear Admiral G. S. Houston, retired. He was born at Lancaster, Pa., in 1845.

It is announced with authority that Frank H. Hitchcock, of Massachusetts, will be appointed First Assistant Postmaster General. Mr. Hitchcock, upon the assumption of his new duties, will resign as asst. secretary of the republican national committee.

Emmanuel M. Hewlett, a negro justice of the peace, created considerable disturbance at the court house this afternoon by demanding that he be served with lunch in the eating room set aside for members of the bar. The proprietor refused, whereupon Hewlett threatened to take the case to the marshal. The proprietor finally directed one of the young lady waiters, Miss Margaret Sisson, to serve the negro. She declined, saying that she would resign first. Another waiter was was finally found to serve Hewlett, and Miss Sisson still holds her position.

The new Postmaster General George B. Cortelyou took the oath of office this morning in the presence of a large gathering of friends and officials of the departments. Shortly afterwards he attended the Cabinet meeting. Mr. Cortelyou arrived at the department at 10:30 o'clock, accompanied by Mrs. Cortelyou and their two children and Miss Hives, her sister. The great desk in the public reception room of the Postmaster General was laden with flowers. The obligation was administered to the new Cabinet officer by T. C. Roach, a clerk in the office of the first assistant, who had been associated with Mr. Cortelyou when the latter served as a stenographer in the office of the fourth assistant 10 years ago. The ceremony was brief. Mrs. Cortelyou was the first to congratulate her husband. The children came next and thep were each given a hug and a kiss. Others present were the retiring Postmaster General R. J. Wynne, the two assistant Postmaster Generals and the two acting assistants, Elmer Dover, secretary of the republican national committee, and the heads of the Postoffice Department.

News of the Day.

The McAdensville Mill, at McAdensville, N. C., was burglarized yesterday and between $15,000 and $20,000 in money and certificates taken from the safe.

President Roosevelt yesterday received the resignation of United States District Judge John J. Jackson, of the district of West Virginia, to take effect March 15. Representative Alston G. Dayton, of Philippi, just entered upon his sixth term as a member of the national House, will be nominated at once to succeed him. Judge Jackson is an appointee of President Lincoln, and the oldest federal judge on the bench.

The relations between the State Department and the Senate are very unsatisfactory. The irritation growing out of the amendment of the arbitration treaties and the refusal of the President to make an exchange of these treaties after they had been ratified is charged against Mr. Hay, rather than against the President. It is understood that Mr. Hay desires to retire from the Cabinet as soon as it can conveniently be arranged for him to do so.

Judgment for $10,872.28 against "Alice L. Webb, known as Alice L. Duke, bride of Brodie L. Duke," the millionaire tobacco magnate, to whom she was secretly married, was entered yesterday in the county clerk's office in New York by the German National Bank of Little Rock, Ark., on two notes. The notes were made by her on February 8 and 18, 1904, payable to the Pritchard-Niemeyer Lumber Company of Chicago. They were transferred by the lumber company to the bank.

KUROPATKIN IN TRAP.

Reports from Niuchwang state word has reached there that scouts of the armies of Generals Nogi and Kuroki are in touch behind Tai Pass. If this be true, the situation of the Russians at Mukden seems more hopeless than ever, since it was General Kuropatkin's intention, according to general report, to evacuate the city and retire to this pass. However, should he have a large force, he might be able to win a victory there, in view of the reported exhausted condition of the Japanese.

In St. Petersburg it is realized that the Russians at Mukden are in a trap, from which escape will be most difficult.

The estimated losses up to that time are placed in St. Petersburg at 25,500 Russians and 40,000 Japanese.

According to Mukden advices General Nogi's Japanese forces are fighting desperately near Mukden, but have met with repeated repulses, the Russians contesting every foot and inflicting heavy losses.

Reports from the Japanese General Oku's headquarters north of Mukden state that the escape of the Russian main force seems impossible.

The capture of Huande by the Japanese on March 2 was one of the sensations of the campaign, their armies of the left taking the place with bayonets against Russian shells.

General Kuroki's Japanese forces drove the Russians farther up the Waitao Mountain, but not until the Russians charged their trenches with bayonets and were repulsed.

Gets Permit to Wed Thee Girls.

Henry Zechenter, who, it is claimed, has a wife and family in Germany, went to the marriage license clerk in Milwaukee and asked for licenses to wed three different girls, giving his own name in each license as that of the prospecive groom. The clerk didn't care because he got the fees. When Zechenter, however, went to Miss Frances Huber, who admits that she had laughingly promised to wed him, conditions were different. As soon as he produced the marriage license with her name the girl said it was all off. "All right," said Zechenter, "one of these other girls will wed me." Then came a quarrel, which landed Zechenter in the police station.

Virginia News.

United States Senator Martin will open headquarters at Murphy's Hotel in Richmond soon after the adjournment of the extra session of Congress and will begin his campaign for re-election. Col. Joseph Button will have charge of the headquarters.

In Norfolk yesterday the Virginia Pilots' Association appealed from the decision of Judge Waddill, of the United States Court, requiring the association to reimburse the steamer Santuit for $4.000 damages paid by the steamer, which was navigated by one of their pilots when a collision occurred in Hampton roads three years ago.

Three men, a dwelling-house, a sawmill and an engine were blown up early yesterday morning at High Top Mines, in Greene county, about seven miles west of Elkton, on the top of the Blue Ridge Mountains. The property belonged to the High Top Mining Company, and it is thought that the house was blown up by dynamite to wreck vengeance on the company.

Mrs. Sallie M. Hanna, charged with poisoning the family of Hamilton Faulkner, of Lynchburg, February 11, by which six persons nearly lost their lives, was indicted yesterday by the grand jury. She is held under three separate charges, and will be given a trial before a jury on Thursday. Lillie Viar, her colored accomplice, also was indicted, and will be tried Friday.

Alexander Tinsley, a negro with a criminal record, is being held in Richmond on the charge of attacking and robbing Ellen Dalbridge, an ante-bellum negress, respected by the white people. She attacked late Saturday night on her return to her home in Henrico county after a shopping expedition in Richmond. Tinsley saw her exhibit a purse with considerable money in it. He followed her to a lonely spot, beat her into insensibility and took her money. The old woman was found later and revived. Her assailant was arrested, identified by her and confessed. The negroes are threatening to lynch him, but he will be protected.

The Hatchet Buried.

President Roosevelt and Arthur P. Gorman buried the hatchet yesterday. For the past few years Senator Gorman has kept away from the White House, and has invariably declined to accept service on any Senate committee which would bring him into contact with the President. Yesterday in the Senate, when a resolution was adopted providing that a committee of two senators should be appointed to wait on the President and ask him if he had anything to communicate, Vice President Fairbanks named Allison and Gorman, and the latter offered no objection, but went cheerfully to the White House with his republican colleague.

The trouble between Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Gorman arose in the state and congressional campaign of 1902. Mr. Roosevelt issued a statement in which he declared that negroes were being disfranchised in Maryland to enable the democrats to carry the State. Mr. Gorman resented this and began a series of bitter attacks on the President, in which the Booker Washington dinner incident and Mr. Roosevelt's personality figured.

The democratic State campaign, under Mr. Gorman's direction, was fought mainly on the race issue, and cuts were printed in the Baltimore newspapers representing the President and his family seated at a table with negroes as their guests. This was resented by Mr. Roosevelt, and it became understood that he and Mr. Gorman were not on speaking terms.

Confessed to Double Murder.

Information has just reached Cumberland, Md., that William Pennell, who formerly lived near that place, and who was lynched several months ago in western Illinois for robbing and murdering a man, had confessed to the murder of Mrs. Cornelius Norris and her 10-year-old grandson in Orleans district, near Cumberland, eight years ago. Before being lynched Pennell was permitted to make a statement, in which he confessed that he went to the Norris home, where he found Mrs. Norris rendering lard on the kitchen stove. He struck her with an axe, killing her almost instantly, after which he robbed the house of $70. He threw the body of Mrs. Norris on the stove, poured the lard over her and set fire to the place. The child was asleep upstairs and was burned to death. About two days afterward the bones of the child and Mrs. Norris were found, the latter lying across the cooking stove, which had fallen into the cellar with the ruins. Pennell was a notorious character, and while suspicion rested on him evidence to convict was wanting. He was raised in Buck Valley, Pa. Later he was accused of another crime in Fulton county, Pa., and escaped after shooting and seriously wounding a member of the sheriff's posse.

Taken to Jail in Fifteen Pieces.

Officers Johnson and Blessinger took Will Heindrich to jail in 15 pieces in Racing, Wis., Saturday night. He is a cripple who had lost both legs and one arm, and he was begging and insulting people when refused money. When arrested he put up a terrific fight. His false legs and arms were torn off, his clothing was torn from his back and nickels and dimes were scattered along the highway for a block. He butted one of the officers in the face and nearly broke his nose; hit another in the leg and gouged a piece of flesh out of another's arm. It was necessary to take him to jail in a buggy. He declared he was with President Roosevelt at the battle of San Juan Hill.

Rioting in Barcelona.

Revolvers were fired and stones were thrown during a demonstration of the unemployed at Barcelonia, Spain, on Sunday. A number of arrests, including well-known anarchists, were made. A bomb was found yesterday in front of the palace of the Marquis de Puebia in Madrid. It was removed in time to prevent an explosion. The government believes that the incidents at Barcelona are part of a general anarchist's plot which developed there prematurely before the arrangements at other centers were complete.

Attacked by a Mob

and beaten in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at E. S. Leadeater & Sons' drug store.

THE CLASH OF WAR.

Russians Abandoning Mukden and Fushun—Fierce and Sanguinary Fighting in the East.

Tokio, March 7. (Noon.)—Reports from the front received here say that the Russians are abandoning Mukden and Fushun and are retreating on Tieling. All Japan is eagerly watching developments and awaiting further reports from the army, as the people believe that the possession of Mukden and the line of the Hun river is assured.

Traders who have arrived at Nieuchwang report that the Russians are burning the government buildings in Mukden previous to taking their departure from the place.

One thousand Russians moving southward along the east bank of the Liao river attacked the rear of the Japanese army, but were repulsed.

The Japanese have completely occupied Singminting and established a temporary censorship over the postoffice which was taken by force, despite the protest of the Chinese.

Nieuchang, March 6.—It is reported here that 30,000 Japanese yesterday gained an entrenched position five miles west of the gates of Mukden, after a desperate hand to hand fight, which lasted all night and until daybreak. Little advantage was gained by either side as the result of the fierce fighting.

Japanese officers report that General Kuropatkin has ordered heavy artillery to Tieling which has already been surrounded by Chunchuses. It is reported a reign of terror prevails. Heavy firing is proceeding along the line of the Liao.

St. Petersburg, March 7.—A report from Mukden states that the artillery duel between the two armies, yesterday, lasted from early morning to sun set. The attack was the fiercest in the village of Jansuntan, which was set on fire by the bursting shells. Night attacks by the Japanese on the center and on the left flanks were repulsed. The Japanese left 2,000 dead in front of Gaotuling Pass.

St. Petersburg, March 7.—Your correspondent is informed from an authoritative source that General Kuropatkin has advised the Czar that the general situation of the Manchurian army is such as to make it imperative that Mukden shall be evacuated at once. The Czar, it is reported, ordered the Russian commander to hold on to the city as long as possible.

St. Petersburg, March 7.—General Kuropatkin reports that the Russians have repulsed the Japanese at all points. He includes his dsipatch. "We have occupied Nusintong heights near Kudatse taking 100 prisoners. The Japanese left thirty officers, and 2,000 dead in front of Putiloff Hill."

Six Thousand Men Strike.

New York, March 7.—New York's transit facilities were paralyzed at four o'clock this morning when six thousand men, motormen, trainmen, gatemen and ticket sellers, the employes of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, went out on strike. The men struck because of a number of grievances, chief of which were a demand for a change in the physical examination of motormen and shorter hours and ten per cent increase in pay for other employes. At four o'clock yesterday afternoon the employes presented an ultimatum to the company's officials, demanding a favorable reply by 11 o'clock last night, and threatening extreme measures in the event of a refusal of their demands. At 11:30 o'clock last night General Manager Frank Hedley sent the simple word "No" to the men who were gathered in mass meeting at Marion and Majestic Halls, in Harlem, and the order to strike at 4 a. m. was given out forthwith. The strike order was received with great enthusiasm. The Interborough Rapid Transit Company controls the subway and all the elevated lines, which carry more than a million passengers a day. Practically every man employed by the company obeyed the strike order, but as the company had nearly a thousand strike breakers and non-union men on hand, many trains were running soon after their abandonment, by new crews. During the rush hour this morning, though, there was much congestion of traffic. The men are orderly and there has not been a single sign of trouble. The police reserves were kept on duty all night guarding the various subway and "L" stations. Altogether Commissioner McAdoo at eight o'clock this morning had 3,000 men on duty.

The strike had been under way not more than half an hour, when it was intimated by the strikers that the fight was more against General Manager Frank Hedley than for higher wages and shorter hours.

William T. Jencks and George E. Pepper have assumed command of the strikers. Pepper said this morning: "It is Hedley we are against. He tried to break up the unions in Chicago, and made the men work there over time without pay. Either the unions here or Hedley must go. We can carry on this strike for six months. We will stand for our full demands to the end. The men have been ordered not to resort to violence, but to conduct themselves as respectful and orderly citizens."

The first serious trouble occurred in the subway at 110th street. A number of men boarded a train at that point and blew out the fuse, disabling the train. A crowd of hoodlums then rushed into the station boarded the train and brutally beat the conductor. He was rescued by the police, but only after he was seriously injured.

Christopher Barnard, assistant Trainmaster of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, caused the arrest this morning of Charles A. Dougherty, a switchman employed in the subway tower at Fulton street. According to Barnard when the strike occurred at 4 o'clock this morning Dougherty locked himself inside the switch tower and refused to operate switches or to allow any one to enter the tower to operate them in his place, thereby endangering human life and safety. Barnard broke in the door of the switch house and caused Dougherty's arrest. Dougherty then made a counter-charge against Barnard of carrying a pistol without a permit.

About noon today nearly one hundred students from Columbia University offered their services to the company. The crowd were members of the football, baseball and athletic teams. They were sent to the company's employment agency and later in the day will appear as guards, ticket choppers and ticket sellers.

Attempted Assassination.

Warsaw, March 7.—An attempt was made to assassinate M. Marchasson and M. Maaitius, two directors of the Email factory. Three revolver shots were fired at the directors as they were riding through Sonbkobska street in a carriage, but the bullets failed to strike the intended victims. The assailant was arrested.

London, March 7.—A Central News dispatch from St. Petersburg, states that it has been officially announced that martial law has been declared at Baku, an important seaport of Russian trans-Caucasia. The dispatch further states that as seven out of the nine groups of workmen have refused to elect delegates to the schidlivsky commission, the Czar has directed the suspension of the work of the commission.

Mrs. Chadwick's Trial.

Cleveland, O., March 7.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick's first day in court seemed strongly to indicate that she is to have a prompt and business-like trial. Court was opened this morning at 9:30 o'clock. Mrs. Chadwick wore the same costume in which she appeared yesterday. She was not so composed. She seemed nervous and ill at ease. In the early hours she sat most of the time with her elbow on the trial table, and a lace handkerchief pressed against her chin. Her husband, Dr. Leroy S. Chadwick, was not in court. Carnegie was also absent, at the beginning of the session. Ernest H. Holter, director of the defunct Oberlin Bank, resumed the stand. Other witnesses subsequently testified.

Accident to Elevated Train.

Chicago, March 7.—Twelve persons were injured this morning, one probably fataly and two seriously, when a Chicago & Oak Park elevated train left the tracks at the Market street switch, one coach overturning and pinning many of the passengers to the floor as it crashed along the ties. When the coach lost its upright position it toppled inward and was saved from being precipitated twenty-five feet to the street below. There were fifty passengers aboard the train. They were thrown into a panic and mingled their screams and shouts with the noise of beaking glass and splintering wood.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A Destructive Fire.

To draw the fire out of a burn, or heal a cut without leaving a scar, use Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. J. L. Tucker, editor of the Harmoniser, Centre, Ala., writes: "I have used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve in my family for piles, cuts and burns. It is the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it on hand." Sold by all druggists.

DIED.

Snake Broke up Quilting Party.

A rattlesnake in a chimney broke up a quilting party Saturday night at the home of Miss Maud Dunbar, near Eldred, Sullivan county, N. Y. The women were engaged at the quilting frames when a peculiar rattling sound at one side of the room was heard. "That sounds like a rattlesnake," exclaimed one of the women, springing from her chair. "You must be crazy," laughed her companion. "What do you supposed a rattlesnake would be doing out such weather as this?" Five minutes later another rattle was heard, and this time it was so distinct as to alarm every member of the party. Just then they were called to tea. After the meal Minnie Gettie, who left the table first and returned to the quiltingroom, saw the head of a large rattlesnake protruding from a hole in the chimney. She ran screaming from the room. Two men were summoned and they killed the snake. The room in which it was discovered had no further attraction for the quilting party. Everybody is trying to solve the problem: How did that snake get into the chimney?

Hungary Near a Crisis.

Judging by reports received last night in Vienna from Budapesth, a conflict between the Crown and the Hungarian nation appears possible and even probable. The contending interests cannot agree on the question of military reforms, and particularly on the use of the Hungarian tongue in the Hungarian army as the language of command, Hungarians declaring that this reform must be instituted, and the Emperor that it is impossible. Neither side has shown signs of weakening, and this question is more pregnant of danger today than ever before.

These questions of military reform and the language of command reached an acute stage in 1903, when Count Tisza was made Premier. At that time Emperor Francis Joseph made at the last moment certain concessions to the Hungarians which even yet are adversely criticised in Austria, and then the opposition was actually in the minority, while now it is the majority.

Dinner to Gen. Lee.

The dinner given General Fitzhugh Lee at the New Willard in Washington last night by officers of the Seventh Army Corps, commanded by General Lee in the Spanish war, was largely attended and was a most brilliant affair. There were about forty covers and when the cigars were reached, in discussion of the menu, there was a flow of eloquence, wit and song that detained the diners until past midnight.

Regrets were read from many officers of the Second and Fourth Virginia Regiments, which formed parts of this corps. Lieutenant-Colonel O. B. Roller of Harrisonburg, who was in the old Second, and Captain M. H. Calfee, formerly of Wytheville, but now of Washington, who was quartermaster of the Second, were the only Virginia volunteer officers present. Arrangements for the dinner were in charge of Captain R. E. L. Michie, of the general staff, a native of Charlottesville and General Lee's adjutant during the Spanish war.

Taxable Values.

According to the last report of Auditor Marye, the taxable value of all real estate in Virginia, whether owned by whites or negroes, is $343,790,316. This is an increase of $6,172,338 over the previous year.

The value of lands and buildings owned by the whites in the counties is $169,004,121; an increase of $3,173,846. The real property owned by blacks in the counties is $7,703,934, an increase of $246,325. About the same proportion of increase is shown in the cities. The value of real estate owned by the whites in 1903 was $123,978,215; that of the blacks, $3,792,750. Last year the value of realty holdings of whites was $125,653,320, an increase of $975,105; the holdings of the blacks for the same year (1904) was $3,928,131, showing an increase of $135,881, over the preceding year.

Cabinet for a Year.

As stated in the Gazette of that day the President yesterday renominated all the members of the Cabinet, with the exception of Postmaster-General Wynne. Mr. George B. Cortelyou was nominated for Postmaster-General. The Senate immediately confirmed the nominations. It was understood that none of the Cabinet, with the possible exception of Mr. Cortelyou, Postmaster-General, will remain in office for more than a year. This will be partly due to political considerations and partly on account of the personal convenience of those who will serve during the opening months of the administration. Three members of the Cabinet are known to be candidates for the presidential nomination in 1908. These are Taft, Shaw and Cortelyou. The Vice President, Mr. Fairbanks, is also an aspirant for this honor, and so is the Speaker of the House, Mr. Cannon.

Will Not Prosecute Mr Willard.

Lieut-Gov. Willard, of Virginia, proprietor of the New Willard Hotel and other Washington property, figured yesterday in a communication to the District Commissioners sent by Miss Mary Dosha, an employe of one of the Government departments. Miss Dosha alleged that the snow had not been removed from the front of Mr. Willard's property since last November. The police investigated and found the statement was true, so far as it pertained to the property near Twentieth street and Wyoming avenue referred to, but they also learned that Mr. Willard had caused ashes to be sprinkled on the sidewalk instead of the snow. The Commissioners are of the opinion that the Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia is not subject to prosecution.

Local Matters.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:23 and sets 5:50. High water at 8:59 a. m. and 9:17 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section rain and warmer tonight and Wednesday; fresh southeast to south winds.

Shrove Tuesday and Ash Wednesday.

Today is Shrove Tuesday, commonly called Pancake Day. It is the day before Ash Wednesday, which marks the beginning of Lent. Shrove Tuesday is the day of preparation for Lent, the chief part of the preparation consisting of receiving the sacrament of penance, or "being shriven," or confessed; hence its name. The eating of pancakes on Shrove Tuesday is a relic of the olden days, when the fasting season was ushered in with feasting.

Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, is also its most solemn day, with the exception of the last three days—Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Saturday before Easter. Special services will be held in all Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran churches tomorrow. In the Catholic churches the palms blessed the preceding year are burned and the priest marks a cross on the forehead with these ashes, saying in Latin, "Remember, man, that thou art dust and unto dust shalt thou return."

Services will be held tomorrow, Ash Wednesday, as follows:

St. Mary's, first mass at 6:30 a. m.; second mass at 8:30 a. m., when the ashes will be blessed and distributed.

Christ Church at 7 a. m.

St. Paul's, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Grace Church, 7:30 and 10:30 a. m., and 7:30 p. m.

Immanuel Lutheran, 8 p. m.

The Lenten season will begin tomorrow, Ash Wednesday, and for nearly seven weeks ensuing many Alexandria people will turn their minds from the distractions of society to more solemn duties.

The season will be given its usual observance by Catholics, Lutherans and Episcopalians, all which denominations will observe special services as follows:

St Mary's Church.—Holy way of the cross Thursdays at 3:30 p. m. and Fridays at 7:30 p. m. followed by benediction of the blessed sacrament; Tuesdays in Lent rosary, sermon and benediction at 7:30 p. m.

Christ Church.—Tuesdays at 5:15 p. m., Thursdays at 8 p. m. and Fridays at 5 p. m.

St. Paul's Church.—Tuesdays at 5 p. m., Wednesdays at 7:30 p. m., Thursdays at 5 p. m. and Fridays at 5 p. m.

Grace Church.—Mondays at 7 p. m., Wednesdays at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., Fridays at 7:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Immanuel Lutheran.—Wednesdays at 8 p. m.

Passing of the Ice.

The recent ice embargo is rapdily becoming a thing of the past. The ice has broken away from the shores, coves and docks and having floated into the channel has been carried up and down with the tide and been ground into myriads of atoms by passing steamers. At the mouths of the creeks and in bends of the river, however, the ice has formed into floes which afford a slight interruption to navigation.

The Norfolk steamer arrived up this morning on time.

The steamer Harry Randall came to this port this morning from Washington and took on a large amount of freight which had accumulated here. She later returned to Washington and will resume her place on the lower river route tomorrow morning. It had been announced that she would leave this morning, but it was subsequently determined to postpone her departure until tomorrow.

The United States steamer Prairie will weigh anchor tomorrow afternoon and leave for Portsmouth.

The schooner Shining Light, Capt. Keith Davis, has arrived from the lower river with a load of oysters. Several other oytser boats passed up during the day in tow of tugboats.

The tugboat Reliance with three barges and an oyster boat, which had been frozen up in the lower river, arrived this morning.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Hayes Jackson, colored, arrested by Officers Lyles, Beach and Allen charged with gambling and vagrancy, was dismissed.

Benjamin Hughes, colored, arrested by the same officers charged with a similar offense, was fined $2.50. Hughes was also fined $2.50 for disorderly conduct and fighting.

To Fix Date for Hearing.

Col. Biddle, Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, has recommended that Secretary Tindall, of the board, be authorized to fix a date for the hearing of officials of this city who protest against the purpose of the Washington authorities to place the outlet of the sewer of their city a short distance above Alexandria. The hearing was asked for by Representative Rixey, of Virginia. "I have considered the reasons advanced by Mr. Asa E. Phillips, acting superintendent of sewers," he says, "but they do not convince me, nor do I believe that they will convince any citizen of Alexandria that no injury will occur to that city."

Fire Last Night.

The alarm of fire about two o'clock this morning was caused by the partial burning of the brick house on the northwest corner of Wolfe and Henry streets, opposite the Southern Railway round house. The house was unoccupied and the origin of the fire is unknown. A fire occurred in the same building some time ago. Officers Smith and Gill subsequently arrested a man who gave his name as R. E. Cassidy, who was alleged to have emerged from the house shortly before the fire was discovered. He was arraigned in the Police Court this morning, but in the absence of evidence of incendiarism on his part he was dismissed.

W. C. T. U. Social.

The social held by the Allison W. C. T. U. last night was a decided success. Both parlors of the Children's Home were well filled. The donation of china was abundant and beautiful and by a strange coincidence many pieces were of the same pattern. Much of the talent promised for the evening was conspicuous by its absence, but the women of the W. C. T. U. are "minute women," so an impromptu programme was arranged and rendered. After the singing of "America," Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett charmed, fascinated and thrilled all hearts by her beautiful address on true patriotism. She commented on the editorial in the Gazette relative to the boys scrambling for money and said "if Virginia had a compulsory educational law such disgraceful scenes would be an impossibility." In closing she told how as a young mother her eyes were opened to the misery and needs of the "other half." Dr. Outcalt, an ever ready and reliable helper, sang a solo in a charming manner. Mrs. Amy C. Weech called attention to the prosperity of the Union and then gave the solution of the evil of intemperance in a nutshell,—a recitation of 20 words, which if practiced by all would immediately bring about the downfall of King Alcohol. Mrs. Lelia M. Tinsley in a pleasing manner spoke of the night school, of the substantial help given by the business men of the city and of the marked improvement in the general conduct of the boys. Light refreshments were then served. A number of hymns were sung, Mr. W. Griffin presiding at the organ. The social was held under the department of Parlor Meeting of which Miss Minnie Philips is the efficient superintendent.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Munn, of Baltimore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence on Prince street during the inauguration.

Rev. J. P. Stump, of Alexandria, is expected to preach at the Regester Chapel in Stafford county next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock and the next day, Sunday will dedicate the new Andrew Chapel at 11 a. m.

Miss Mamie Faulkner Sonner, who has been quite ill at the home of her father on Payne street is slowly improving.

Progressive Euchre.

The progressive euchre given last evening by the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum, at their hall on Duke street, was largely attended and those present spent a very enjoyable evening. Prizes were won as follows:

Opera House Tonight.

All arrangements have been made for the reproduction of "Ten Nights in a Barroom" at the Opera House tonight. The performance will be for the benefit of Mr. Henry Brengle, one of Alexandria's most venerable and esteemed citizens, and it naturally appeals to the many friends and acquaintances of that gentleman who will delight at the opportunity to express in a pleasant testimonial their appreciation of him. The persons who will participate in the drama have perfected themselves, and a pleasant evening is assured all who will attend.

Suicide.

Clinton M. Haskinson, a Washington salesman, committed suicide last night at his home, 339 Eleventh street southeast, by swallowing carbolic acid. Despondency, born of failure in business some time ago, is believed to have prompted the act. On several occasions, it was learned from the coroner, the man threatened to end his life because of his inability to pay those to whom he owed large sums of money. Haskinson had recently obtained a position as salesman in a grocery store in this city.

Election of Officers.

At a meeting of the teachers and officers of the Sunday School of the Methodist Protestant Church held last night the following officers were elected for the ensuing year Superintendent, N. S. Greenaway; First Assistant, Miss Mary Penn; Second Assistant, H. M. Hantzmon; Secretary, Fred Ebhardt; Treasurer, Charles Hantzmon; Pianist, Mrs. Chas. Hantzmon; Assistant, Mrs. Julian Hantzmon; Superintendent Primary Department, Miss Virginia Roxbury.

Approaching Fishing Season.

The supply of fish had increased in market this morning, and fine specimens of shad and herring (from southern rivers) were displayed. Trout and strawberry perch—the latter fac similes of white perch, but dotted with black spots—were also displayed. The Potomac fishing season is drawing near, and the ice being in the last stages of decomposition, conditions will soon exist for seinehauling and gilling.

A. L. I.

There will be a meeting of the Alexandria Light Infantry next Monday night at which a second lieutenant will be elected. A meeting of the command will be held on the following night when the regular inspection will be made. The Light Infantry now has upon its rolls the requisite number of members, and increased interest is apparent among all connected with the company.

R., while engaged in making a switch in the yard of the Washington-Southern Railway, near the Virginia Glass Works, last night, was knocked down by a moving car. TUESDAY EVENING, MAR. 7, 1905.

The Sunflower.

It has always been said, how truly we do not positively know, that the sunflower turns its face ever toward the sun; that it bows a genial welcome to the king of day when that monarch first lifts the curtain of night and peeps over the horizon upon an awakening world, and that it follows the imperial visitor in his majestic march across the heavens and nods a good night to him as he passes with his retinue of golden beams and silvery shadows behind the western slopes. This may be an exaggeration of the sunflower's conduct, but we believe it is at least partially true, and that the Kansas flower does respond in some degree to the attractions of the great luminary. Anyhow, the thought of this handsome product of the prairies turning its frank, open face ever toward the light and responding to the ardent wooing of the sun with reciprocal affection is inspiring, isn't it? It is a symbol of the ideal soul—the soul that loves the light, that glows in the presence of things that are lovely, the receptive soul, the soul that is responsive to truth and beauty—in a word, the sunflower's soul.—Marion (Kan.) Record.

Old Time Extravagances.

We hear a great deal about the luxury and extravagance of the age; but, when you think of it, a great many of our most reckless fashions date from past centuries. In the fifteenth century, for instance, the feminine wardrobe was magnificent, with its garments weighed down with laces and embroideries in guipure, points coupes, Milanese and Venetian, not forgetting the gold embroideries worked with precious stones, etc.

For several centuries women wore white shoes in kid and ordinary leather as well as dainty chaussure in embroidered satin for dancing the pavane and minuet in.

In the time of Louis XIV. the women wore most sumptuous lingerie and dassous made chiefly of what used to be called les dentelles d'ete, a kind of silk blond lace with a cord in it, which used to be mounted over colors for the petticoats and was also worn for the hanging sleeves which used to show the arms so prettily.—Paris Fashions.

A Telepathic Clock.

Here is a strange yet absolutely true story, in which a clock plays a mysterious part: It was a small American timepiece which stood on a mantelpiece in a sitting room in a Liverpool builder's house. At 11:30 one morning the timepiece fell from the mantelpiece to the floor. When picked up it was found to be quite uninjured and still going, as if nothing unusual had happened. There seemed to be absolutely no reason why it should have fallen, but an hour later when the builder came home to his midday meal he remarked that at 11:30 he fell from the top of a building, but happily without sustaining any injury. His wife then described how the clock had fallen at the same time, and the couple ponder in vain over the curious and utterly inexplicable coincidence.—Liverpool Post.

Gilbert of Colchester.

Gilbert of Colchester, who flourished three centuries ago, has been called the founder of the science of electricity. Gilbert discovered the augmentation of the power of a loadstone by arming or capping it with soft iron cheeks, the screening effect of a sheet of iron, the method of magnetizing iron by hammering it while it lies north and south, the destruction of magnetism by heat and the existence around the magnet of a magnetic field. Generalizing from small to large, he advanced the entirely novel idea that the globe of the earth is itself a magnet.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and by the proper treatment of these diseases a threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. There is no question whatever about this, as during the thirty years and more that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used, we have yet to learn of a single case of a cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used. It is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that dosen't digest the food and give the stomach a rest. It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.
